Oak chips

DESCRIPTION

SpiritoAge PTD is a French oak product, crafted in its natural untoasted form to preserve the authentic character of the wood. Its profile introduces a captivating smoky dimension, evoking sensations of peat, fireplace warmth, and a delicate hint of ash.

Ideal for integration during ageing or finishing, SpiritoAge PTD elevates complexity and depth in the spirit's aromatic structure. Its influence brings forward refined smoky notes while enhancing mouthfeel with remarkable fullness, softness, and a creamy texture.

The impact on aroma, flavor, and texture depends on dosage and spirit type. Higher dosages intensify the smoky character, creating a distinctive style reminiscent of peated expressions, making SpiritoAge PTD a versatile choice for crafting bold and sophisticated spirits.
